

Rock Some Fun & Games In Medina County

Winter can be a magical time in Medina County as the fading glory of late autumn gives way to the dazzling brightness of the snow-covered landscape. But rather than burrowing in to wait out the cold weather, it's time to rock out with fun and games in Medina County.

Attractions

- 1

Concerts in the Barn
- 2

Quality Inn
- 3

Scene 75
- 4

Foundry Social
- 5

High Voltage Indoor Karting
- 6

Medina Beer Fest
- 7

The Spitzer House

Plan Your Midwinter Getaway

Kick off your trip with live music by reserving tickets to Concerts in the Barn series at Mapleside Farms (294 Pearl Road, Brunswick, OH). Held in Mapleside's spacious barn, the concerts include delicious food and drinks to refuel you as you dance all night. Live acts include The Diamond Project, Boaterhead, Spazmatics, and The Breakfast Club. Shows run every Friday night from January 26 through April 19.

When you're ready to call it a night – comfortable accommodations are just a short 10-minute drive away. Book your room at the Quality Inn, Brunswick Cleveland South (1435 S. Carpenter Road, Brunswick, OH). It offers free WiFi, free hot breakfast, pet accommodations, and laundry.

While in Brunswick, stop by Scene 75 (3688 Center Rd. Brunswick, OH), voted the top family entertainment center in the world. The venue features nine indoor attractions, like laser tag, blacklight mini-golf and bumper cars, 150 arcade games, a bar, and a renowned Food Truck Alley. It's the perfect cure for the winter blues.

For a gaming experience more geared towards adults, head to the Foundry Social (333 Foundry Street, Medina, OH). Foundry Social offers an extensive selection of classic and modern games, a full kitchen, and a well-stocked bar. From billiards and bocce to duckpin bowling and ping pong, you'll find plenty of entertainment. Then get your motor running at High Voltage Indoor Karting (333 Foundry Street, Medina, OH). High Voltage Indoor Karting occupies nearly 40,000 square feet of indoor space, where the hum of electric go-karts mixes with the cheers of racers.

Craft brewery enthusiasts, and every beer lover, won't want to miss the annual Medina Beer Fest (Medina County Fairgrounds, 720 W Smith Road in Medina, OH). Held April 27, 2024, from 6:30 pm to 10:30 pm, the eleventh annual Medina Beer Fest will feature 25 regional breweries offering over 75 brews. Tickets go on sale a couple of months in advance and sell out quickly, so check the event website for updates.

After broadening your beer horizons, rest your weary head at a B&B that's only 1 mile away. The Spitzer House (504 West Liberty Street, Medina, OH), is a Victorian bed and breakfast inn with private baths for all rooms and all the modern conveniences.