DECKED OUT DINING

Medina restaurants in the historic district offer an opportunity to eat in a Hallmark setting with your friends and families. Visit 17 Public Square, a beautifully restored restaurant in a century-old landmark building. The menu features shareable appetizers, hearty burgers, flavorful sandwiches, and fresh pita wraps. Just steps away, Honeybee Bakery, 23 Public Square, Medina is a sweet escape. Using the finest ingredients, they craft everything from cupcakes, cookies, and macarons to gluten-free delights. If you're in the mood for something with bold flavor, stop into Monarca, 108 Public Square, Medina, a vibrant restaurant offering authentic Mexican cuisine. The award-winning menu features hand-crafted, made-to-order dishes such as delicious street tacos and signature cocktails.

HOLIDAY HIGHLIGHTS

Looking for some Holiday cheer? Don't miss the Medina Candlelight Walk. Each year in late November, Medina Square is transformed into a glittering winter wonderland filled with 1,500 luminaries, 5,000 votive candles, and 15,000 twinkling lights. Shops and restaurants in the nine-block historic district stay open late for this three-day event to welcome over 50,000 visitors, making it a magical holiday experience that brings smiles you won't want to miss.

Is it any wonder why people travel from all over the country to visit Castle Noel? Located at 260 S. Court Street, Medina, Castle Noel, is America's largest indoor year-round Christmas attraction. Inside, you'll find movie props and costumes from beloved holiday films, retired window displays from famous department stores, and even a slide that lets you relive Ralphie's visit to Santa from A Christmas Story. Be sure to get tickets online to experience excitement and nostalgia on a two-hour guided tour.

HOLIDAY SHOPPING

Have someone on your list that is impossible to shop for? Check out Something's Popping, 47 Public Square, Medina, known for its unique popcorn flavors, homemade fudge and nostalgic candy. They specialize in gift boxes and tins, make sure to grab stocking stuffers for the whole family or just a bag for yourself to snack on! Check out Nibble, a gourmet food, gift, and kitchen boutique located at 229 S. Court Street, Medina. Browse unique gifts like fun baking supplies, jams, seasoning mixes, soups and dining-themed treasures perfect for any foodie on your gift list. For a charming, one-of-a-kind shopping experience, visit LilyNicholas Shoppe, 32 Public Square, Medina, a cute local boutique where fashion meets handmade gifts. For lovers of quality craftsmanship, Finn's Fickle Goods at 113 W. Liberty Street, Medina is a shop you won't want to miss. It's run by a husband-and-wife team who create handcrafted goods using locally sourced leather. Each piece is carefully designed to be stylish, affordable, and last a lifetime.

ONE-STOP SHOPPING FOR LOCAL GOODS

Just a short drive from the square, in Medina's Southtown District, The Exchange Market, 650 W. Smith Road, Medina is a year-round community hub located on the first floor of the newly renovated historic Farmers Exchange building. It features a mix of permanent shops and pop-ups:

- Keller Meats Butcher Shop – Farm-fresh meats including beef, pork, poultry, lamb, and seafood.
- Farmer's Table Restaurant – Rustic farm-to-fork dining with house-made local dishes and Ohio craft beers.
- Keller Café Bistro – Cozy coffee bar serving breakfast items and specialty coffee.
- 1904 Brews – Charming shop featuring locally roasted coffee and craft brews.
- Pierogies of Cleveland – Handcrafted pierogies made with Yukon Gold potatoes from a local Hiram farm (with over 25 varieties!).

The Exchange Market perfectly captures what Medina does best—supporting small businesses! Picture yourself in Medina County this Holiday Season and celebrate like the locals!
