Day One: Friday

Start the reunion weekend by checking into accommodations that offer convenient access to Medina County attractions, restaurants, and gathering spaces.

Brunswick Comfort Suites (1464 Town Center Blvd, Brunswick) – Spacious Suites and convenient amenities make this the perfect destination for families and groups.

Holiday Inn Express & Suites Medina (5185 Gateway Drive, Medina) – Conveniently located near I-71, this family-friendly hotel offers complimentary breakfast, an indoor pool, and comfortable accommodations for groups.

Spitzer House (504 W. Liberty Street, Medina) – This award-winning boutique hotel and bed-and-breakfast offers charming accommodations in the heart of downtown Medina, with cozy guest rooms and modern amenities.

Garner Hotel Wadsworth (5 Park Center Dr, Wadsworth) – This pet-friendly hotel offers comfortable accommodations, modern amenities and is a great choice for families traveling together, especially when bringing along your 4-legged friend.

After everyone arrives, gather for a relaxed welcome dinner to reconnect and catch up.

The Brew Kettle Brunswick (5288 Center Road, Brunswick) – Large seating areas, family-friendly dining, and a welcoming atmosphere make this an easy choice for larger groups.

Dominics Pizzeria (221 S. Jefferson St, Medina) – A local favorite serving pizza, pasta, and Italian specialties that are ideal for sharing with family.

Blue Heron Brewery & Event Center (3227 Blue Heron Trace, Medina) – Private event spaces, a scenic setting, and a menu that appeals to a variety of tastes make this a popular gathering spot for groups.

Day Two: Saturday

Saturday is all about spending quality time together. Start the day with an outdoor gathering at one of Medina County's beautiful parks and lodges.

The Lodge at Allardale (401 Remsen Road, Medina) – This picturesque lodge offers plenty of room for family gatherings, catered meals, group photos, lawn games, and easy access to nature trails.

Oenslager Nature Center (6100 Ridge Rd. Wadsworth) – A peaceful nature escape featuring scenic trails through forests, wetlands, and meadows, perfect for hiking, wildlife watching, and discovering the beauty of Medina County. With educational exhibits and year-round nature programs, it's a favorite destination for families.

If you'd prefer a venue with built-in catering, Medina County also offers banquet facilities where your family can simply arrive, enjoy a meal together, and leave the details to the staff.

Williams on the Lake (787 Lafayette Road, Medina) – This lakeside venue offers beautiful event spaces and professional catering services for reunions of all sizes.

Galaxy Restaurant & Banquet Center (201 Park Center Drive, Wadsworth) – Multiple banquet rooms, onsite lodging nearby, and extensive catering options make planning simple for larger groups.

For families looking to add a little adventure to the day, Medina County offers attractions that appeal to every age group.

Mapleside Farms (294 Pearl Road, Brunswick) – Seasonal activities, farm market shopping, beautiful orchard views, and family-friendly entertainment make this a favorite stop for reunion groups.

Spring Mist Farms (691 Pearl Road, Brunswick) – Families can enjoy farm animals, educational experiences, and outdoor activities that younger children especially love.

Scene75 Entertainment Center (3688 Center Road, Brunswick) – Arcade games, indoor attractions, laser tag, mini golf, and more provide hours of entertainment regardless of the weather.

Castle Noel (260 S. Court Street, Medina) – America's largest year-round indoor Christmas attraction delights both children and adults with movie props, holiday displays, and nostalgic exhibits.

High Voltage Indoor Karting (333 Foundry Street, Medina) – Older kids, teens, and adults can enjoy friendly competition on one of Ohio's premier indoor karting tracks.

Spend your Saturday night living like the locals, where you'll find plenty of entertainment for families and larger groups.

Grizzly Pedal Bike Tours (123 Broad Street, Wadsworth) – Gather up to 14 people for a two-hour pedal-powered tour of Downtown Wadsworth featuring music, sightseeing, and BYOB for adults.

Medina Pedal Company (333 Foundry Street, Medina) – Explore Medina's Historic Square while enjoying drinks, music, and great company.

Market42 (2099 Pearl Road, Brunswick) – A vibrant gathering place featuring local food vendors, specialty shops, live entertainment, and community events.

Day Three: Sunday

Before heading home, enjoy one final meal together and a relaxing morning with family.

The Cracked Egg (1480 Pearl Road, Brunswick) – A popular breakfast and brunch destination with plenty of options for all ages.

The Farmer's Table (320 S. Court Street, Medina) – Fresh, locally inspired dishes and a welcoming atmosphere make it ideal for a farewell brunch.

Valley Cafe (101 High Street, Wadsworth) – A cozy, family-friendly restaurant serving hearty homestyle breakfasts, and comfort food.

Before departures, consider one last opportunity to enjoy Medina County's natural beauty.

Buckeye Woods Park (6335 Wedgewood Road, Medina) – Walking trails, playgrounds, sports fields, and open green spaces offer something for every generation.

Tumble Bug Trailhead (5796 Longacre Lane, Chippewa Lake) – This scenic, family-friendly path showcases beautiful lake views, perfect for walking, biking or enjoying a little natural beauty.

From outdoor adventures and nostalgic attractions to welcoming gathering spaces and family-friendly dining, Medina County offers everything needed to plan a reunion that brings generations together and creates memories that last long after the weekend ends.
